http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/howto.html

The Office for Civil Rights (OCR) enforces five federal civil rights laws that prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability and age in programs or activities that receive federal financial assistance from the Department of Education (ED). Discrimination on the bases of race, color and national origin is prohibited by Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; sex discrimination is prohibited by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972; discrimination on the basis of disability is prohibited by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Title II prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability by public entities, whether or not they receive federal financial assistance); and age discrimination is prohibited by the Age Discrimination Act of 1975.

These civil rights laws extend to all state education agencies, elementary and secondary school systems, colleges and universities, vocational schools, proprietary schools, state vocational rehabilitation agencies, libraries and museums that receive federal financial assistance from ED. Programs or activities that receive ED funds must provide aids, benefits or services in a nondiscriminatory manner. Such aids, benefits or services may include, but are not limited to, admissions, recruitment, financial aid, academic programs, student treatment and services, counseling and guidance, discipline, classroom assignment, grading, vocational education, recreation, physical education, athletics, housing and employment.

OCR also enforces the Boy Scouts of America Equal Access Act, part of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act. Under this act, OCR can investigate complaints involving the denial of equal access or a fair opportunity to meet to, or discrimination against, any group officially affiliated with the Boy Scouts or affiliated with any other youth group listed in Title 36 of the United States Code, by a public elementary school, a public secondary school, or a state or local education agency that receives funds from ED.

The Program Compliance office is responsible for administering a program of monitoring and oversight of the institutions (i.e., schools (domestic and foreign), guarantors, lenders, and servicers) participating in the Department of Education's Federal Student Aid programs. The office establishes and maintains systems and procedures to support the eligibility, certification, and oversight of program participants. The office administers the Secretary's authority to assess liabilities, fine, suspend, terminate or take other actions against schools and serves as the initial arbitrator of such actions against guaranty agencies, lenders, and servicers. To accomplish this mission, the Program Compliance office is divided into the following Groups:

- School Eligibility Service Group
- Financial Institution Oversight Service Group
- Administrative Actions and Appeals Service Group
- Performance Improvement and Procedures Service Group
- Technical and Business Support Service Group

School Eligibility Service Group

The School Eligibility Service Group (SESG) is responsible for administering a program of eligibility, certification, management improvement services, and oversight of schools, and their servicers, participating in the Department of Education Federal Student Aid Programs. This compliance program, which also includes financial analysis and audit resolution, is administered in accordance with policies and procedures established by the Performance Improvement and Procedures Service Group and utilizing the automated systems and facilities developed and maintained by the Technical and Business Support Service Group.

To accomplish this mission, the School Eligibility Service Group is divided into the following School Participation Divisions (SPD) that specialize in the business processes necessary for managing accountability in campus administration of Federal Student Aid Programs. There are eight School Participation Divisions – seven for domestic schools and one Division that focuses on foreign schools responsibilities.

- New York/Boston School Participation Division
- Philadelphia School Participation Division
- Atlanta School Participation Division
- Chicago/Denver School Participation Division
- Dallas School Participation Division
- Kansas City School Participation Division
- San Francisco/Seattle School Participation Division
- Foreign Schools Participation Division

Each of the Regional Divisions has responsibility for the oversight and management improvement services of specific schools assigned to them. These Divisions have the following common responsibilities:

- Examines, analyzes, and makes determinations on the initial and renewal eligibility applications submitted by schools for participation in the Federal Student Aid program.
- Processes and maintains records of schools' Program Participation Agreements and notices of eligibility to participate in the Federal Student Aid program.
- Monitors schools and their agents through on-site and off-site reviews and analysis of various reports to provide early warning of program compliance problems and takes appropriate actions.
- Performs financial analyses and monitors financial status.
- Requests letters of credit and heightened cash monitoring actions.
- Manages and monitors missing/late audits and financial submissions.
- Schedules and conducts compliance initiatives reviews, as needed.
- Performs audit resolution.
- Identifies closed, bankrupt, and troubled schools and notifies appropriate Department of Education offices.
- Works with state agencies and accrediting agencies on closed schools and other issues.
- Identifies requirements for tuition recovery programs and coordinates the fulfillment of these requirements.
- Evaluates and acts upon the findings, conclusions, and recommendations produced by other FSA units, e.g., negative cash.
- Determines liabilities and/or recommends administrative actions.
- Works closely with and/or refers matters to the Office of Inspector General and Administrative Actions and Appeals Service and other offices.

- Collaborates with Performance Improvement and Procedures Service on the development and/or revision of policies and procedures.
- Reviews and updates pertinent institutional databases.

Higher Learning Commission - http://ncahlc.org/HLC-Institutions/complaints

Individuals interested in bringing an appropriate complaint to the attention of the Commission should take some time to compile a complete submission as outlined below. There is no complaint form.

- 1. Write a cover letter directed to the Commission containing a brief narrative of the facts of the complaint. In most cases, such a narrative need be no longer than a few pages.
- 2. Indicate in your complaint why you believe the issues raised in your complaint are accrediting issues. If possible, please review the Commission's Criteria for Accreditation on the Commission's Web site prior to writing this section. You should also indicate how you believe the Commission can assist you with this matter. Remember that the Commission cannot assist you in understanding your tuition bill, arranging for a refund of tuition, obtaining a higher grade for a course, seeking reinstatement to an academic program, etc.
- 3. Attach documentation to support your narrative wherever possible. (For example, if you make reference in your complaint to an institutional policy, include a copy of the policy with your complaint.) Helpful documentation might include relevant portions of the catalog, letters or e-mail exchanged between you and the institution, learning agreements, etc.
- 4. A few reminders-- •Please type your complaint or print very neatly.
- Please do not use abbreviations or nicknames (e.g., NMS or USC or U of N).
- Sign and date the cover letter.
- Include contact information for future correspondence, with a street address.
- If you are writing on behalf of someone else (son/daughter or client), be sure to provide that person's consent in writing to allow you to communicate with the Commission on his/her behalf.
- 5. Mail the letter and its attachments to the Commission's office at 230 South LaSalle Street, Suite 7-500, Chicago, IL 60604-1413. The Commission does not have an online complaint system and does not accept complaints via e-mail.

Please note that The Commission will not consider those complaints that are not in writing and do not contain the elements noted here. The Commission's complaint policy precludes it from considering matters more than five years old.

The Commission will acknowledge your complaint within thirty days of receiving it and let you know whether your complaint is complete and whether it raises issues that are related to accrediting requirements or whether it is an individual dispute outside the jurisdiction of the Commission's complaint policy.
