A Degree Check will confirm the courses a student has successfully completed toward graduation. It will also show any outstanding course(s) and/or degree requirements yet to be completed. Please note: each student must meet any outstanding financial obligation(s) with CMN. You may confirm any financial balance or obligations not met with the Bursar's Office.

Degree Check Information

1. Written confirmation of Degree Check verification indicating degree requirements pending, outstanding, or successfully completed will be mailed to the mailing address recorded above.
2. Once your Degree Check is verified and your coursework is complete (or you are in your final trimester of coursework), you may submit a REQUEST TO GRADUATE to the Registration Office.
3. It is the student's responsibility to submit a Degree Check and subsequent Request to Graduate prior to the start of the last trimester of course work in order to graduate from the College of the Muscogee Nation. Failure to submit a Request to Graduate in a timely manner may prevent participation in the commencement exercises.
