

NATIVE AMERICAN STUDIES

Associate of Arts Degree
(66 Hours)

The Native American Studies program is a specialized degree focusing on Mvskoke language or Mvskoke studies with the opportunity for alternative tribal courses. Students will develop an informed and tribal-specific appreciation for historical, cultural, and language issues within the broad social contexts of Native America. Native American Studies students develop working knowledge to help preserve and record tribal history and strengthen culture and language.
